Institutional Fees:

Exchange Students will pay to their Home Institution full tuition and all other mandatory and required fees associated with full-time registration in the graduate program to which they have been admitted at the Home Institution during their exchange. Exchange Students will pay no application or tuition fees at the Host institution. Where local regulations require Host institutions to assess tuition fees to incoming exchange students, funding to cover these tuition fees will be secured by the Host Institution before the exchange can be offered. Exchange Students will be responsible for paying other mandatory fees at the Host Institution as required.

Institution	Mandatory fees* at the Host institution
University of Alberta	<ul style="list-style-type: none">● Exchange students will be required to pay a once-per-term fee for the Universal Transit Pass (the “U-Pass”) which provides students with unlimited use of all Edmonton-area public transportation.● Exchange students who are neither Canadian citizens nor Permanent Residents of Canada (and who therefore do not have public health care coverage from one of the provinces of Canada) will be required to participate in the University of Alberta Health Insurance Plan (UAHIP).
The University of British Columbia	<ul style="list-style-type: none">● Graduate students can expect to pay approximately $1082 (2023) per year in student fees (including the transit U-Pass) and $277 for the AMS/GSS Extended Health Plan. Most of these fees are mandatory, but some have opt-out provisions. * fees may vary in the different years

Insurance Requirements

All exchange students are required to obtain adequate out-of-country major medical insurance which includes repatriation expenses. Other insurance to be considered by the students would include property insurance and liability insurance. Students must demonstrate evidence of coverage when requested by any appropriate authority. Where applicable, Host institutions will provide liability insurance for all exchange students at the same level they provide their own students (whether for extra cost to the student or not). Some participating institutions require mandatory health care coverage obtained through their institution as a condition of registration on their campus:
